

EXPECT SUFFRAGE TEST THIS MONTH

Suffrage leaders in and out of the Senate are looking forward to the test on the proposed suffrage amendment to the Constitution which they expect about the end of this month.

Consideration of the amendment September 26 having been agreed on, suffragists are anxious for a vote as early as possible after that date. No agreement on a date for actual voting has been reached. The suffrage leaders have been anxious to secure a vote before the election, and they believe they will realize their wishes.

Canvasses of the Senate show the situation as between the suffragists and anti-suffragists is close, but Senator Curtis, who is taking a prominent part for suffrage and who has canvassed the situation carefully, says the amendment will win. The influence of the President in favor of suffrage in recent months has been a factor. Another factor in bringing on a vote is the recent action of the Republican caucus in the Senate, which went on record for a vote this session.

For political reasons, Democratic leaders do not like to take the responsibility of blocking a vote under the circumstances.

With suffrage likely to be unloaded from the shoulders of Congress this session and with "bone dry" legislation expected, senators are expressing gratification that they are about to be relieved of two of the most troublesome propositions they have had for years.

INTERNAL REVENUE FIGURES HIT RECORD

Internal revenue collections for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, totaled $2,694,702,334.05, an increase of $2,880,000,000.61 over the year before. This announcement was contained in the annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, made public today.

Collections from income and excess profits taxes for 1918 were $2,309,053,555.53, compared with $2,290,685,146.50 from income taxes from corporations and individuals for 1917. The total revenue in 1918 was 7.9 times as great as the income tax of 1917.

In Utah, $1,330,000 was collected in 1917, and only $2,605,000 in 1918. West Virginia showed the largest gain, collections in 1918 being 23.7 times as great as in 1917, the actual increase being from $1,221,000 to $45,049,000.

The five States reporting the largest collections were New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, and Massachusetts. These five States in 1918 returned $1,968,371,000, or 65.8 per cent of the total collections in the United States.

MOTOR TRANSPORT MEN GIVE BANQUET

Lieut. Col. Barrett Andrews last night urged the members of the motor transport corps to continue to work in harmony in an endeavor to promote the efficiency of the service. Colonel Andrews spoke at the banquet given by members of the training branch of the corps in the Hotel Washington.

Colonel Andrews declared that the co-operation of the members of the division has been one of the chief reasons for the success of the service. It is expected that a large number of those that heard Colonel Andrews speak will shortly be sent to various motor transport schools now being established throughout the country.

MARINES WANT MEN

A new ruling permitting men in the selective service draft to join the marine corps after October 1 was made yesterday, according to an announcement from marine headquarters, which also states that the marines are 20,000 men short of their war strength, which is 75,000.

Through an agreement made between the army and navy the marine corps will be allowed to recruit a month until its full complement is made up, providing voluntary enlistments do not produce the required amount.

The new ruling will open the marine corps to thousands of registered men who prefer the "soldiers of the sea" branch of the service. All enlistments must be made through local draft boards.

CONNALLY JOINS COLORS

Tom Connally, Democratic Congressman from Texas, has joined the colors. The War Department yesterday awarded Mr. Connally a commission as a captain, and he received orders to report at Camp Meade, Md., September 26 to take up his duties as adjutant.

Mr. Connally is a veteran of the Spanish-American war. He is the fifth member of Congress holding a commission. Captain Connally will retain his seat in Congress and continue to be a candidate for re-election.
